This meeting served as a platform to discuss and identify the roles and responsibilities of each member involved in the event.

The primary objective of the meetup was to create awareness about the upcoming Tharang fest within the campuses of all IHRD institutions. It aimed to ensure that every student, even those who couldn't participate on the main event days, could still be a part of the Tharang wave.

During the meeting, thorough discussions were held to determine the events and activities that would take place in each college. The role of each member was carefully assigned, considering their strengths, skills, and areas of interest. The meetup served as a platform for effective communication, fostering collaboration and synergy among the participants. It provided an opportunity to exchange ideas, seek suggestions, and address any concerns or challenges that may arise during the event planning process.

By involving students and faculties from various institutions, the IHRD meetup aimed to create a sense of unity and shared responsibility. It emphasized the importance of teamwork and collective efforts in making Tharang'23 a resounding success.

10. CALL FOR NAME

Everything in this world needs a name - a word that encapsulates its essence, its purpose, and its significance. Just as Confucius wisely said, "The beginning of wisdom is to call things by their proper name." In our quest for a name that would embody the very heart and soul of our event, we turned to the vast reservoir of creativity within the IHRD community.

A group of experienced experts carefully examined the sea of ideas. Their goal was to find a name that would evoke emotions, ignite passion, and leave a lasting impression on everyone involved.

Waves, in their majestic and powerful nature, embody the spirit of constant movement, energy, and transformation. It is with this understanding that we turn our attention to the chosen name of our event: "IHRD Tharang." With each wave, a new possibility emerges. Priyanka S from College of Engineering Chengannur and Mushin M from CAS Chelakkara were the brilliant minds behind suggesting this name. These students were honored with special prizes during the award ceremony for their outstanding contributions.

With the collaborative spirit of the IHRD community, we embraced "IHRD Tharang" as the name that would accompany us on this extraordinary journey and with each mention of this name, emotions surged within us. It became more than just a combination of letters - it became a testament to our unity, aspirations, and unwavering commitment to excellence. It became a name that would forever resonate in our memories, reminding us of the transformative power within us.

11. CALL FOR LOGO

The logo for IHRD Tharang held immense significance, as it would become the visual representation of our event, evoking a sense of belonging and inspiration. With the theme of science, youth, and leadership at the heart of our event, the logo needed to encapsulate these elements and resonate with everyone. We opened a call for logo designs, extending an invitation to all members of the IHRD community to showcase their creative talents and contribute to the visual identity of IHRD Tharang. We sought a design that would not only align with our event's theme but also evoke a feeling of warmth, inclusivity, and familiarity.

Designers from across the IHRD community enthusiastically embraced the challenge, pouring their hearts and minds into crafting the perfect logo. After a rigorous evaluation process, a panel of experts with a keen eye for design and a deep understanding of our event's objectives carefully deliberated on the submissions. Their expertise ensured that the chosen logo would be a true reflection of the values and aspirations of IHRD Tharang.

The chosen logo for IHRD Tharang, designed by a student from College of Engineering Chengannur, is a powerful representation of our tech fest. This talented student received a special prize for his design at the award ceremony. Inspired by the name "Tharang," meaning waves or ripples, the logo features a star rising from the deep, symbolizing the emergence of our tech fest and the waves of excitement, innovation, and revolution it brings forth. It captures the transformative power and limitless potential of our event.
